

Outdoor Living

We partner with Embers Bushcraft to provide incredible opportunities that inspire people by providing positive and creative opportunities to develop skills and confidences.

Each session is tailored to the group but outdoor living encompasses bushcraft and includes everything you need not only to survive outside, but to do that in a sustainable and comfortable way. This can include fire building, cooking, building shelters as well as a plethora of other activities.

Please contact us for more information.